Insurance workshop needed

BELLE GLADE-Belle Glade City Commissioners decided Tuesday, November 12 at their regular commission meeting to hold a workshop sometime next week on the city's current health insurance, which is up for renewal on December 1.

City Manager W.E. "Tom" Strang told the commissioners about some of the proposed changes with the renewal of New England Life Insurance.

The insurance, said Strang had increased three and one half percent over last year and the premium had increased by $15.

Strang added that a 'mandatory second surgical opinion' was required by the firm or the insurance wouldn't cover 80 percent of the bill, only half of it.

Mayor Tom Altman voiced his opinion by saying such a procedure wasn't practical in the Glades area, only for metropolitan areas.

Strang stressed to the commission that a workshop was needed to be informed by Attorney John Baker about the new law and to determine 'what we want to do'.

The commission approved the last and final payment to the Watertown Paint and Repair Co.

the amount of $9,869 for maintenance done on the water tanks in the city.

The Watertown Paint and Repair Co. had been on contract with the city since 1979. Strang said he felt it would be better in the long run to stay away from such long term contracts. He stated that it would be better to get yearly estimates, which would hopefully be higher than the price paid and would save the city a few hundred dollars.

In other matters the commission:

- presented a proclamation to Sister Patricia Downs, NOAH (Neighbors Organized for Adequate Housing) representative, proclaiming Nov. 16-23 Heritage Week.

- were told by Strang that two new personnel positions were established: Assistant Water Plant Superintendent and Administrative Secretary.

- appointed Jerry Lohmann to replace Rupert Mock, Jr. on the Police Officers Retirement Board and appointed Joseph W. Scott to replace William D. Burr on the Fireman's Pension Board.

- adopted a resolution revising the budget to reflect requested purchase orders.

- were informed by Strang that the Port Mayaca Cemetery Board of Trustees were meeting regularly and that they will definitely have something to report about the cemetery at the next Tri-City meeting on Dec. 4.

Just before adjournment Altman pointed out some of the positive coverage concerning Belle Glade vs. the negative.

Altman pointed out that Belle Glade's own Ray McDonald, football player for the University of Florida (Gators), had made the front cover of this week's issue of Sports Illustrated.

He commended McDonald, Tommy DuHart, Jesse Hester, and other athletes who represented the Glades.

"This town has a lot to be proud of," said Altman. "Young people are our biggest assets. They've done a lot for representing this town, particularly over the last six months."

THE OLD CAMPGROUND was opened with ribbon cutting last Friday, November 8. Belle Glade City officials helped in cutting the ribbon.

Renovated campground opens

BELLE GLADE Some 30 campers at the new Belle Glade Marina have been waiting to move into newly renovated sites at the old municipal campground.

They were able to do so this past weekend following ribbon cutting ceremonies Friday at the site. The campers came prepared with sizzors to help cut the ribbon with Belle Glade City Commissioner Charles Goodlett and City Manager W.E. Strang.

According to Goodlett, the old marina had been under renovations since June. New electrical boxes and system, all underground, have been installed and the sites were raised to 19 feet.

"This area was built up to grade, but over the years, just like everywhere else, it lost the muck," Goodlett said. He said the old marina had required a lot of fill.

The 183 sites should fill up fast, according to Goodlett. He said the new area now has paved streets, rock parking sites and all the water lines have been redone.

Campground Director Michael Underwood said with the opening of the old marina, there are now 350 campsites at the marina.

Town Talk

Finance seminar set

BELLE GLADE A seminar devoted exclusively to strategies for financing a college education will be conducted by EF Hutton on November 14. It was announced today by Thomas L. Altman, manager of the company's office here. The seminar is a new one, for Hutton, Altman said.

"A college education is not an uncommon goal today, but financing it can be a burden for the whole family," he said. "The cost of tuition at public universities has increased five times since the late 1960's. That compares to a three-fold increase for the consumer price index," Altman said.

The seminar, to be conducted by Hutton's Belle Glade Office, will explain a number of techniques for safely accumulating funds to meet education expenses.

It will be held at the Glades Campus of Palm Beach Junior College beginning at 7:30 p.m. Admission is free.

Center to be open

In an attempt to provide area students and avid readers with a place to do research or read for sheer enjoyment, the Community School media center will be open two nights a week.

Beginning Tuesday, November 19, the media center on the Annex Campus of Glades Central Community High School will be open from 7 to 10 p.m. on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

Serious students and other in the community who would like a quiet place to read are encouraged to utilize these facilities.

School in food drive

BELLE GLADE Glades Central Community High School will be participating in Channel 5's "Food for Families" drive during the week of November 11-15.

Donated food items should be taken to the Glades Central High School Annex campus which is open until 10 p.m. Monday through Thursday and until 4:30 p.m. on Friday.

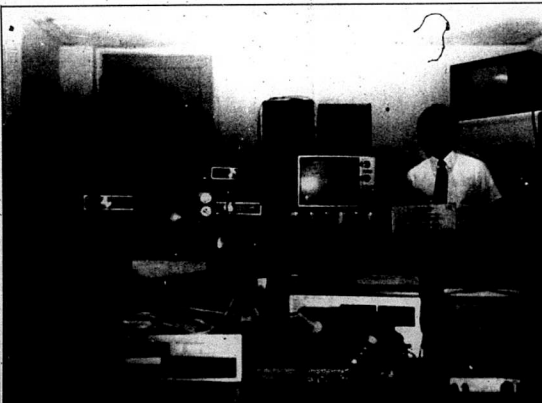

US 27 lane closing

SOUTH BAY-The north and southbound lanes on US 27 will be closed at the Northwest 4th Street intersection starting Thursday, November 14. The lanes will be closed from 9 a.m.-5 p.m. for approximately two weeks. The Department of Transportation will be constructing a left turn lane at the intersection.

DETECTIVES ALBERT DOWDELL III (left) and Sergio Longino (right) are pictured with an estimated $18,000 in stolen property that has been recovered by the Belle Glade Police Department in the last month.

Belle Glade PD find $18,000 in property

BELLE GLADE-As many as five burglaries have been solved, and as much as $18,000 in stolen goods have been recovered by the Belle Glade Police Department.

Detective Sergeant Jack Fulenwider said Tuesday, "The burglaries solved have all occurred within the last month. Many of the recoveries have been made in the last two weeks," said Detective Albert Dowdell III.

A large portion of the recovered stolen goods have been returned to the rightful owners. Fulenwider said they no longer have to hold stolen property for use as evidence in court.

"We call the owner in, have them identify their property, then photograph the owners with their property. According to new laws the photographs are sufficient to show ownership," said Fulenwider.

Some of the items recovered were five stereos, eight televisions, two VCR's, two cases of soft drinks, a floor jack, welders, and four HBO boxes. Fulenwider encourages citizens to mark personal belongings with their driver's license or social security number. "We have an engraver in the department, and we'll be glad to do it for the public," said Fulenwider.

By engraving the personal numbers on their belongings it not only may serve to deter thieves, but aids police, and property owners, in identifying the stolen articles.

County gives OK to Glades housing plan

The Palm Beach County Commission approved the much discussed $5 million housing plan for the Glades area in their regular commission meeting last week.

The commissioners approval marks the first step toward providing clean, safe and affordable housing geared towards the low income families in Belle Glade, South Bay, and Pahokee areas.

The plan involves building four projects totaling 241 units, three of them in Belle Glade and one in South Bay. Housing and Community Development Director Allan Schmier approximates the cost of the four projects to be around $10 million.

According to Schmier, the $10 million would be split into three categories, $2.7 million in the form of loans and grants, $4.8 million public assistance, and $5 million from public developers.

Of the three projects in Belle Glade, the largest project is a 131 unit rental complex costing $5.5 million. A one, two and three bedroom 24 unit totaling $925,000 and 22 three bedroom single family houses costing $1.2 million dollars is also proposed.

A 64 apartment complex totaling $2.68 million dollars is also planned.

City officials view the commissioners OK as a 'dream come true'.

"We're all ecstatic with the unique types of assistance. We've tried to get assistance for 12 consecutive years now," said Belle Glade Mayor Tom Altman.

Altman also added that he had mixed emotions about the proposals. He said the proposals presented weren't prudently submitted dollar-wise.

Although Altman is the first to agree that housing is desperately needed, in the future he plans to view the Belle Glade housing with more prudence and fiscal responsibility.

Clarence Anthony, mayor of South Bay is elated that the housing plans are finally underway.

"I'm very happy to see the county taking a lead in the Glades area. For years, we've had promises and proposals, now we're actually moving forward," said Anthony.

"I'm happy to see the Glades working for the Glades, not one particular city," Anthony said. "We've been waiting a long time."

Grant a success on two levels

SOUTH BAY Rosenwald Elementary School has been successful on the local and state levels in its efforts to receive federal grant funds for a project on the Bicentennial of the U.S. Constitution and other early documents. The funds could be as high as $30,000 for the two-year program, entitled

"A Personal Approach to American History." Participating in the overall authorship of the grant request was Rosenwald Elementary Principal Earlyne R. Harrell, Assistant Principa Linda A. McCabe, Media Specialist Annie R. Russell, Media Clerk Debra Benjamin and Head Secretary Anicea Lovely Wilson.

To date, Rosenwald has been selected for recommendation by Palm Beach County to the state, and recently Ralph Turlington, Commissioner of the Department of Education, State of Florida, made his recommendation that the project be approved at a national level.

Rosenwald is awaiting news of their successful consideration by the U.S. Department of Education to be one of the six national sites chosen under the Excellence in Education program.

Harrell said the professional, legal and business community of the Glades has helped support the school in its quest for the grant. Final approval or denial should occur in January, 1986, according to Harrell.

PAHOKEE—Due to a scheduling error, the Pahokee Elks Club's Drug Awareness program has been rescheduled for November 18 at 7:30 p.m.

GILBERT'S Jewelry and Gifts moved this week to their new store located at 200 S.W. 1st Street, Belle Glade.

FP&L to offer energy help

BELLE GLADE — Florida Power & Light Company is assisting the Florida Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services (HRS) in distributing applications for families seeking federal funds to help meet energy bills this winter.

According to Dale Stapp, FPL Glades District Manager, applications for the Low-Income Home Energy Assistance Program are currently available at all FPL business offices. Stapp said applications must be filed with HRS between Nov. 1 and Dec. 16, and that eligibility for assistance is determined by HRS.

"This year the Low-Income Home Energy Assistance Program will provide $23 million in financial assistance to Floridians," said Stapp. He reported that $13 million was disbursed for electric service last winter, adding that FPL customers received more than $9 million of the total.

"We're very pleased with that rate of success," said Stapp. "It shows that applications are reaching those customers who need help paying their energy bills."

He said families or individuals presently receiving Aid to Families with Dependent Children, food stamps, supplemental security income, or certain veteran's benefits, generally qualify for the Low-Income Home Energy Assistance Program.

According to HRS guidelines, applicants must have a verified income that does not exceed the state's poverty level: $481 per month for a single person, $646 per month for two people, $811 per month for three people, plus $165 for each additional person. A household with income of more than the limit still may be eligible, said Stapp, because some types of income are not considered by HRS.

Applications for Low-Income Home Energy Assistance are available at HRS offices, some city and county welfare offices and other community organizations, in addition to FPL business offices.

Vocation English class starts

A class in Vocational English as a second language (VESL) is open at West Technical Education Center. The instructor, Jose Rendon, speaks both English and Spanish.

He has experience working with students needing basic skill training in English as a second language.

VESL is a class aimed at people with few English skills. The class will help students learn words and language used on the job.

Many students completing this course move up to higher paying, more satisfying jobs. People needing basic English skills for their job should consider registration for this class. For information call West Tech at 996-4930.

Woman arrested on lottery charges

SOUTH BAY-A 27 year old Belle Glade woman was arrested in South Bay on Saturday, November 9, on lottery charges.

According to police report, Patman William Huggins obtained information on a possible lottery run through confidential sources.

He found out a woman was transporting lottery information in a 1985 Oldsmobile in a brown paper bag on the floor of the car.

The car was spotted at the intersection of US 27 and SR 80 and was soon stopped. The car was searched and two brown paper bags containing alleged lottery tickets and $596.75 were found on the floor of the car.

Patrolman Danny Jones stood by as a witness and Evangel Danetta Jett, 512 SW 3rd Street, Belle Glade, was booked into the Palm Beach County Jail under a $1,000 bond.

Gator homecoming week schedule

BELLE GLADE — Glades Day School is celebrating Homecoming this week with plans for a parade and their annual Gator Growl.

This year's theme is "Gator History in the Making," which honors 20 years of the school's existence.

Spirit Week was kicked off Monday night with a powder puff tackle football game between the senior and junior girls. Sophomores also played on both teams. The underclassmen won for the second straight year as they blanked the seniors 14-0.

For an extra added attraction, male students dressed as female cheerleaders and obliged the fans with their versions of GDS cheers.

Students and teachers have been encouraged to capture the spirit of homecoming by dressing as kiddies, nerds, and beach bums for Spirit Days. Gator Growl, a night time pep rally in which classes will compete in skit competitions, will begin at 8:00 p.m. Thursday night in the Gators gym.

A special feature is the "Ms. GDS" contest, in which a student from each class, grades 9-12, will win an outfit and try to "win the hearts" of unsuspecting judges and football players.

The parade will begin at 1:00 p.m. Friday, with floats and other participants leaving the school, going west on NE Ave. L, travelling south on Main Street, and ending at the City Hall complex. An alumni barbecue will be held from 5:30-7:30 p.m. Friday. Tickets are $5 each and will include ribs, chicken, and all the trimmings. Everyone is invited.

A homecoming dance will be held following the game. Tickets are $3 each.

Senior citizen assaulted while asleep

BELLE GLADE — A 63 year old woman was awakened by a 31 year old Belle Glade man as he tried to drag her out of her bed and attempted to sexually assault her.

Detective Sergio Longinos, Belle Glade Police Department, said Jorge Smith Quintero, 800 NW Ave. L, was arrested Sunday on charges of burglary of an occupied dwelling with an assault and attempted sexual battery.

According to police reports, patrolman Carl Kamnstra responded to a burglary complaint at the home of Ellen Hollonay at 8:30 Sunday morning.

Longinos said Quintero allegedly entered the woman's home through a rear window and attempted to drag her from her bed and sexually assault her.

The victim said the intruder covered her mouth to keep her from screaming.

Sources said Quintero was positively identified at the scene and booked into the county jail under a $10,000 bond.

PAHOKEE OBSERVATION

By Eric Kopp

Shopping woes

Hey sports fans, 'How 'bout them Dawgs'. It never ceases to amaze me how quickly Gator fans jump at the chance to slip me a few George Washington's when these two tangle on the gridiron each year.

The only problem now is collecting. That may take me until their next meeting. I only wish I could have listened to the game. Unfortunately, I wasn't near a radio or television. You see, I got caught up in that fine old tradition of walking around a mall, shopping. I enjoy shopping about as much as smelling the by-products of sugar cane that's dumped in that hole on SR 715.

I was conned by a lady's bright smile and a young 'uns insistence. (Nagging, if you will.) "I can't go Saturday. My Dawgs are on the tube, my hair's messed up, and I got a hang nail," I whined.

Needless to say, none of my excuses held up. We hit the road to West Palm with me muttering unpleasantly and her muttering pleasantly. It's funny but all the way over I have the distinct feeling I'm being ignored.

On the way we mapped out a plan of attack and it all sounded fairly simple. I thought for a while, and concluded we could find everything we needed in one place.

We arrived at the store around 10:30 and I was positive I would be homebound bound in an hour, hour and a half at the outside. WRONG!

First off we had to find the kid some boots. Well, this store had thousands of them on display and must have tried on each pair twice before finally settling on one pair.

After an hour of trying on boots I asked him what kind of boot he liked. He thought for a second and gave me the typical answer.

"I dunno."

My fiancée wasn't much help either. (That's right, fiancée. It wasn't a typo. But, more on that at a later date. Probably a whole lot more.)

She was off on another side of the store looking at boots for her and me. She's gonna. She has to learn real soon that shopping is her duty, so she needs to be over here with the kid helping him.

"Where's my fiancée?" she asks. I point to the pile of boots. "She's in there somewhere. See if you can't hurry her up a little."

She and a salesman dig him out, looking a little worse for wear.

"Here try this one on," she says, handing him a particularly nice looking pair of elk skin boots.

He tries on the right boot, then the left, and complains they don't fit the same. Then he tries on another pair, but he doesn't like the color. We repeat this process over and over until he finds a pair he likes.

Hallelujah! All I gotta do now is find him a pair of jeans, pay for the stuff, and hit the road home.

We search. Five sales clerks search. A pair of jeans is not to be found that will fit him. Now we have to go to the Palm Beach Mall where he knows a store that sells his size.

I'm standing at the counter ready to pay for the boots when my fiancée walks up with a pair of ostrich skin boots in her hands.

"These are pretty. How do they make boots out of ostrich skin," she asks.

"Out of their lips. How do I know? Go find a clerk so we can get outta here," I growl.

After spending 45 minutes trying to locate a parking space, we finally manage to make our way into the mall.

I ask the kid where the store is.

"I don't know. I've never come in here from this direction," he says.

"What difference does direction make! Look, the ball game is already on so let's get a move on. Okay!" I say trying to calm myself.

Ten miles later we locate his store. Lo and behold they have the pants he needs. They fit too!

I quickly run a time schedule through my mind. We should be home at least by halftime if we hustle.

I grab the pants and sprint towards the cashier, bowing little old ladies over trying to get to the head of the line.

About that time here comes my fiancée with some distressing news. "I've got an idea. Let's go to Sears, they'll be a little cheaper there."

After she had assured the store manager I was all right and had never physically injured anyone during my fits, we headed on a trek so long it would've made someone a millionaire for sponsoring me in a walk-a-thon.

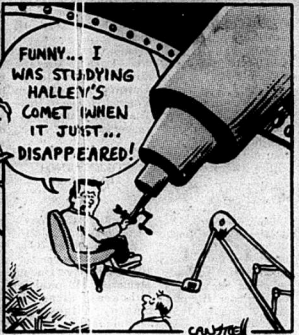

To make a long story short, we never found Sears. An hour later we find his pants, although by now our legs are worn down to nubs.

I muster up the energy to run to the car in hopes of catching the last few minutes of the game.

I stick the key in, and switch on the radio just in time to find out who the announcers were.

The game was over.

If anyone out there is expecting a Christmas gift, tough! My shopping days are over.

McKelton leads Pahokee to victory over Newman

By ERIC KOPP

PAHOKEE—Senior quarterback Pernell McKelton rushed for one touchdown and threw for another, as he led the district playoff bound Pahokee Blue Devils to a 21-10 win over Cardinal Newman at Lair Field.

The Blue Devils struck first, as wide receiver Reggie Mickens hauled in a 10 yard touchdown pass in the second quarter from Monroe Young on a fake field goal.

Pahokee reached pay dirt again early in the third stanza as McKelton ran for his first touchdown on an option play from 8 yards out.

In the final quarter McKelton threw a 10 yard scoring strike to wide receiver Walter Britt to put the game out of reach and give the Blue Devils another mark in the win column.

"This week it was McKelton's running, more than his passing, that was the difference in the game," said head coach Don Thompson.

"But, I feel the real key to our win was that we out hit them, and didn't allow them to get into their passing game. Our defensive ends, Curtis Smith and Tyrone Campbell, played an exceptional ballgame," said Thompson.

The Blue Devils recorded 6 quarterback sacks in Friday's contest.

Running back Alphonso Smith had another big game as he ran for an even 100 yards, while fullback Tyrone Hickman added 80 rushing yards as the Blue Devils chalked up over 300 yards on offense.

Thompson said the crucial play of the game came early in the first period when Pahokee scored on a 9 play, 96 yard drive.

"That drive put us on top 21-10. We just took the ball and rammed it down their throats. That drive broke their backs," said Thompson.

A big surprise for the coach was Lavelle Williams. Williams converted on all three point after attempts for the Blue Devils, something they have lacked all season.

McKelton was named the game's Most Valuable Player by the coaching staff. The outstanding offensive back was Alphonso Smith.

Receiving top lineman honors were Blaze Thompson and Leon Hill.

Walter Britt was named the outstanding defensive back, and outstanding defensive lineman awards went to Curtis Smith and Tyrone Campbell.

The unsung hero award went to defensive back Lawrence Manderville.

The 5-6, 135 lb., Manderville recovered another fumble to keep his string of having recovered a fumble in every game this year, alive.

The Blue Devils will travel to West Palm this Friday to do battle with 3-A foe Northshore.

"There a lot like us. They operate out of a pro-set formation, have a pretty good passing game, and have a couple of speedy running backs. It's going to be a tough game," said Thompson.

He said his offensive game plan is to hit in the middle of their defensive line to pull them in. Once that is accomplished, Thompson said he'll quick pitch to the outside.

"Once we get their defense pinched in and their secondary pulled up, we'll go for the bomb," he said.

Thompson said Northshore has made the statement they must beat Pahokee to save their season.

"They picked us as their homecoming game, figuring they're going to have an easy time of it. I think they'll be surprised," he said.

Format set for championship

By ERIC KOPP

PAHOKEE—The Pahokee Blue Devils will travel to Immokalee to face the winner of the Immokalee-Bishop Verot game in a Kansas tie-breaker for the district championship Monday, November 25, beginning at 7:30 p.m.

If the Blue Devils will take on the district 8, 2-A, champs out of Miami.

In the Kansas tie-breaker, both teams take over on their opponents 10 yard line and have 4 chances to score.

Once a team scores the other team has one more scoring chance. If they fail to score the playoff is over.

"We tried to talk the Florida State High School Athletic Association into letting us play a full quarter, but they chose this method," said head coach Don Thompson.

"It's really going to be tough for us because we play Glades Central the Friday night directly before the playoff, and we're probably going to be pretty well beat up," he added.

Crusaders pound on Panthers

BELLE GLADE—The Christian Day Crusaders (6-3) literally killed the Princeton Christian Panthers 60-0 at their home game on Friday, November 8.

Head Coach Joe Ray felt that it wasn't much of a game.

"They just laid down," said Ray, referring to the Panthers. "They didn't have much of a chance."

The Crusaders have played the best season in two years, but Ray is faced with a different problem.

"We've progressed a lot," said Ray. "But after our fifth game we've gone downhill. Our best play so far was against St. Edwards. We just peaked out too soon. When you're ahead 30-0, it's kind of hard to keep them fired up."

"There were a lot of fumbles and penalties against us this last game," said Ray. "We're just not concentrating. We're not playing to our full potential."

Ray commended his defense for "doing a great job" and especially commended player David

Hopkins on his good defense.

Hopkins scored on a 47 yard pass interception, had one tackle and assisted on 12 tackles.

David Chambliss had eight carries for 71 yards and scored a TD on a 10 yard run. Crusader Tommie Gilbert scored on 20 and 30 yard runs which included three carries on 53 yard runs and a 45 yard pass from quarterback Joey Miller.

Miller passed for 5 and 45 yard touchdowns and a two point conversion. He also had three carries for 23 yards and scored on 13 and 4 yard runs.

This Saturday, the Crusaders will travel to Ft. Lauderdale to face Westminster Academy for the last game of the season.

Ray said at this point the team is going into the game "blindfolded", but plans to have the team playing more aggressively.

"We're going to start tackling and hitting harder," he said.

The Crusaders team rank number one in Palm Beach County with 332 total points scored this season. Second on the list is Forest Hill with 180 total points scored.

Big fish beginning to move to shallow water

Big fish in Lake Okeechobee are starting to move into shallow water. In the past week I have had an eight and three-quarter, seven and three-quarter and a six and one-half, all on wild shiners.

My guide parties have had several big finger-fish on, but could not land them. A lot of fish are being caught on gambler worms, rattle traps (gold) and small top water plugs (like the mighty minnow).

My guide party of Bill and Clint Bekker from Tequesta, FL, enjoyed a fine day on the Lake with a good catch. Also a guide party of two fishermen from Pittsburgh, Pa., Bob Lukifitz and Dan Murphy had a fantastic catch of 10 fish up to six pounds.

My fish are being Gary Fountain and son Adam Fountain had a great week on Lake O with another fine catch. Ken Bowmaster and guide of Steve Gurne and Chris Denke of Hartford, Conn. also had a good catch.

I want to welcome guides Roy, Gibb and Mac back to the camp this year for another good fishing season.

Jim and Mike and Mark want to welcome all fishermen to J-Mark Fish Camp for all their fishing needs.

Speck fishing has not picked up much this week. Wally Love from West Palm fished Friday and Saturday and caught just enough to grease the frying pan.

Remember, this weekend, Sun. Nov. 15 is the Terry Ford Tournament Classic, final!

All the public is invited to the weigh-in at 3 p.m. The winners will have earned the use of two new Ford trucks for one year. Good luck to all tournament fishermen. Boating tip this week: Remember to have plenty of gas before going out on the Lake. There are no gas pumps on Kramer Island. Someone out there knows who I'm talking about. Until next week, safe boating and good luck fishing.

Frostproof chills Glades Day Gators, ice 15-8 win

By ERIC KOPP

BELLE GLADE—Football rivals Glades Day and Frostproof resumed their football wars, but this time the clock ran out on the Gators as they fell to the district 5, 1-A leaders 15-8.

"They were bigger, but we out hit them. We just made some mistakes that killed our drives," said head coach Byron Walker.

Walker said he was proud of the way his team fought back from a 15-0 deficit, and even with :03 seconds left, had a chance to win the game.

"You've got to admire the kids because they gave 110 percent," he said.

The Bulldogs broke on top first following the interception of a John Hundley pass on the Bulldog 20 yard line by Frostproof defensive back Scott Norton.

Norton returned the interception to the Gator 48 yard line.

Six plays later Frostproof scored on a 32 yard pass play from quarterback Tom Elyard to wide receiver Alvin Harper with 1:49 left in the second quarter.

The point after was good, and the Bulldogs went in at halftime leading 7-0.

The majority of the third quarter was a defensive battle until, with 1:28 left in the third quarter, Bulldog running back Robert Fair broke through the Gator defensive line and ran in from 10 yards out to give Frostproof a 13-0 lead.

On the point after attempt, the Bulldogs faked the kick and again Fair ran it in to put Frostproof on top 15-0.

Glades Day's lone score came on a third and four situation with 7:45 left in the game.

Gator quarterback John Hundley called a trap option and instead of giving the ball off broke off his right tackle, cut back to the middle of the field and galloped 74 yards for the touchdown.

Jorge Suarez punched the ball in for the two-point conversion to narrow the Bulldog lead to 15-8.

The Gators mounted a charge late in the game when, with :03 seconds left, they found themselves facing a third and three on the Bulldog 25 yard line.

But, an illegal procedure call set the Gators back five yards and put them in a fourth and fifteen situation.

A desperation pass into the end zone fell harmlessly to the ground, and Frostproof had held on for the win.

Hundley led the Gators in rushing yardage with 78 yards on 6 carries.

Suarez was held in check by the Bulldog defense, as for only the second time this year his rushing total fell below the century mark.

The senior tailback had 72 yards rushing on 14 carries.

The Gators, still in a three-way tie for the top spot in their district with Boca Academy and St. John Newman, find themselves in a must win situation against district rival Moore Haven this Friday to hold on to any shot at the district championship.

Glades Day will find themselves facing one of the best running backs in the area, according to Walker, in freshman stand out Wayne Moore.

"He's as good as I've seen in a long time," Walker said of the 6 foot, 220 pounder.

"He's got power, speed, and is a class young man," said the Gator head coach.

Walker said his young team has improved 500 percent since the first of the season, but still needs to get points on the board.

"We're getting the yardage, but we need to be getting the points," he said.

Defensively, Walker said, the Gators will try to be aggressive, and not over pursue.

"We've got to have good pursuit, but on the other hand we have to be careful not to over pursue and let them cut back against the grain," he said.

Walker said the Terrier defense tends to be over aggressive, so the Gators will run right at them.

The Gator homecoming game is slated for an 8:00 p.m. kick off.

Ears for the deaf, Inc.—hearing dogs

Ears For the Deaf, Inc., initiated the hearing dog program in Michigan in February of 1980, and currently has programs in several states including Florida.

Program information is made available to handicapped people throughout the state at no charge to the recipient.

Prospective applicants are sent information about the program, along with an application.

Once an applicant is selected to receive a dog, a pre-placement visit is made to determine the applicant's needs and the animal's welfare.

The dog must be accepted and loved as a live-in member of the family.

An animal is chosen, usually from an animal shelter, and tested to determine its temperament, stability, and general qualifications. Once an animal has been chosen, the applicant has the final say. A lifetime commitment is made.

By P.J. Fertitta

All dogs receive vaccinations before training, and are spayed or neutered.

Each applicant and dog work together in all phases of training with the trainer going to the applicant's home. A special bond is allowed to form between the applicant and dog.

The animal receives certification after training is completed and allowed to wear a blazer orange collar and leash which is the official color for hearing dogs.

Periodic visits and contacts are made by the trainer to assure all is well. If a problem occurs, the trainer is only a phone call away.

Although there is no charge to the recipient, it costs approximately $1,000 to train the animal.

Ears For the Deaf, Inc. does not receive funds from any agency. These services are only made possible by private donation.

All donations are tax deductible and can be made by contacting Mrs. Gurlach at 1-305-996-6166. Sounds most frequently requested for hearing dogs to respond to are smoke alarms, baby's cries, intruders, open doors, and picking up dropped belongings.

If you are interested and know someone who needs help, or would like a demonstration for your civic group or private organization contact Mrs. Gurlach.

Ears For the Deaf, the gift of sound. If you have a question about your pet, write to P.J.'s Pet Talk, in care of the Belle Glade Herald, 607 S. Main St., Belle Glade, Fla., 33430.

Presented in cooperation with Glades Newspapers, Inc., and the Department of Animal Regulation.

HITTING THE BOOKS are residents who came to the Belle Glade Municipal Library's book sale and arts and crafts fair. The fundraiser grossed $362 which will go towards new equipment for the library.

The great American smokeout is a great day for quitters

Smokers who want to give up the cigarette habit may find the task easier on Thursday, Nov. 21. That's the date of the American Cancer Society's ninth annual Great American Smokeout — a day when the nation's 54 million smokers are encouraged to kick the habit for at least 24 hours, just to prove to themselves that quitting is possible.

Smokeout Day is celebrated throughout the country as an upbeat, lively event. Parades, "Run Your Butts Off" races, rallies, cigarette "matches" and other activities keep the mood light, and keep smokers' minds off cigarettes. American Cancer Society volunteers organize Smokeout events in shopping malls, parks, corporations, schools, hospitals, and other areas. The aim: to offer support and assistance to smokers trying to quit for the day.

"In Belle Glade, Smokeout supplies are available at the Chamber of Commerce and Glades General Hospital," said Sharon Underwood, ACS representative out of every seven deaths in this nation-wide event.

A special program, "Adopt-A-Smoker" has become a popular feature of the Smokeout.

"Nonsmokers can be a part of the Smokeout by adopting smokers they'd like to have quit for the day," Underwood said. "Adopters can offer 'survival kits,' snacks, and encouragement throughout the day.

The support really helps."

Although the Great American Smokeout may seem all festivities and celebration, it has a very serious purpose, since more than 340,000 American die each year of diseases linked to smoking, representing one out of every seven deaths in the United States.

Cigarette smoking is responsible for 83 percent of all the lung cancer deaths in the nation, and in 1985, lung cancer will surpass breast cancer as the leading cancer killer of women. This statistic is attributed to the large number of women who started smoking during and after World War II. Cigarette smoking is a significant factor in other cancers as well: cancer of the mouth, esophagus, larynx, pharynx, bladder, pancreas, and it has been linked to some cases of cervical cancer.

Last year a record number of smokers — an estimated 20.4 million, according to a Gallup survey — participated in the Great American Smokeout. Of the participants, 5.4 million smokers — about 10 percent of the nation's smokers — succeeded in quitting for the day. Approximately 8.1 million still were not smoking one to five days later.

"These are impressive statistics," says Smokeout Chairman, Larry Hagman, star of the television series "Dallas." "They represent a growing number of Americans who have a strong desire to stop smoking."

Hooker-Dobberstein repeat vows in double ring ceremony

BELLE GLADE In a candlelight setting at 6 p.m., Saturday, September 28, at the Community United Methodist Church, Belle Glade, Miss Liska Denise Hooker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Hooker, became the bride of Scott Richard Dobberstein, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis R. Dobberstein of Brunswick, Ohio.

The church nuptials were a garden of palms, ficus trees and spathiphyllum. The guest registries which held tall arrangements of birds of paradise were attended by Mrs. Peggy Carpenter Brady and Mrs. Christa Barnes Grindstad, cousin of the bride.

The church altar and choir loft was banked in palms, ficus trees, spathiphyllum and Boston ferns. A fifteen branch brass arched candelabra, graced on either side by brass spiral candelabras surrounded a large arrangement of birds of paradise, blue agapanthus and foliages.

Nine branch brass tree candelabras with bouquets of birds of paradise completed the altar decorations. Reserved pews were marked with birds of paradise and Chinese evergreen leaves.

A prologue of organ, violin and french horn selections was presented prior to the wedding ceremony. Mrs. Karen Corbin was the organist. Mrs. Pat Miller, violin, and Mr. Dana Twiss, french horn.

Following the prologue, the honorary bridesmaids, Miss Bonnie Lee Goudy, Mrs. Rebecca Jones Maglio, Miss Helen Carol Northrop and Mrs. Jane Priest Sims were escorted to reserved seating.

The bride's grandmother, Mrs. Liska Humphries, wearing a floor length two-piece peach crepe gown trimmed in bugle beads, accented with a corsage of white cattleya orchids, was seated.

The groom's mother, wearing a long lavender crepe gown with lace jacket, accented by a white cattleya orchid corsage.

MR. AND MRS. SCOTT DOBBERSTEIN was escorted to her seat by Mr. William Costner.

To the music of organ and violin, the selection "Evergreen" was sung by Mrs. Carol Schmidt.

The mother of the bride wore a sunflower jacquard wrapped style gown with a silver bugle beaded bodice, complimented by a white cattleya orchid corsage and was escorted to her seat by Mr. Eric Moore. Soloists Mrs. Carol Schmidt and Mr. Milton Carpenter, sang the duet, "You and I."

Following the pulling of the aisle cloth by Mr. Thomas Glen Dobberstein and Mr. Thomas Joseph McCabe, the wedding procession, to the music of "Trumpet Tune" by organ, Mr. William Costner, was led to the altar by the officiating clergyman, The Reverend S. Harry Russell.

The clergyman was followed by the groom, Scott Richard Dobberstein, wearing formal black attire with tailcoat and boutonniere of delight roses and stephanotis.

Proceeding behind the groom were his two best men, Mr. William Roe Costner and Mr. James Cross Simmons. Serving as groomsmen and wearing formal black attire with tailcoat and boutonniere of orange betina roses, were Mr. Frank Elgin Bayless, III, Mr. John Ward Ely, Mr. Thomas McCabe, Mr. Eric Keith Moore, Mr. Kevin Douglas Moore and brothers of the groom, Mr. Gerald Louis Dobberstein and Mr. Thomas Glen Dobberstein.

The maid and matron of honor were the two sisters of the bride, Miss Cheryl Louise Hooker and Mrs. Monica Hooker Madigan.

They wore tea length dresses of royal blue chintilly lace with a satin underskirt which featured a satin cummerbund and large bow in the back. They carried a high fashioned tiered bouquet of birds of paradise, galax leaves and bear grass.

Bridesmaids, Miss Donia Francette Adams, Miss Terry Lynn Cranford, Mrs. Florence McWay Hill, Mrs. Melanie Bolt Pouch, and cousins of the bride, Miss Nancy Araminta Creech and Miss Robin Dawn Hooker wore dresses and carried bouquets identical to the maid and matron of honor.

Proceeding the bride, the flower girl, Miss Jamie Ann Dobberstein, niece of the groom, in a designed gown identical of the bridesmaids, scattered rose petals from a royal blue basket.

The bride, to the music of "Bridal Chorus" escorted to the altar by her father, was radiant in an elegant designer gown of pale ivory silk organza.

The gown featured a high victorian neckline, a molded bodice fitted to the waist and embellished with French Alencon lace. Hand sewn pearls and sequins illuminated the bodice motifs of the bodice which plunged to a dramatic low back.

The Gibson girl sleeves of Alencon lace enhanced the bodice. The full skirt was accented by silk chintilly lace in a cameo motif that formed the hemline.

Yards of the lace lavishly decorated the cathedral length train from the natural waistline. A matching band of Alencon lace and seed pearls framed the bride's face. The sheer cathedral length veil was edged with clusters of pearls. She carried an elaborate present bouquet of white delight roses, stephanotis and galax leaves.

As the bride and groom ascended the steps to the altar, the soloists sang the duet "To Me." At the close of the marriage ceremony, Mr. Carpenter sang, "Eternal Life."

The wedding ceremony was concluded by the soloists as they sang together, "Whither Thou Goest" as a congregational and groom.

The wedding party recessed from the church by "Trumpet Voluntary" and the remainder of the guests followed to the wedding reception at the direction of Mrs. Alice Mixson.

The bride and groom arrived by limousine at the Mayasco Lakes Country Club in West Palm Beach for a gala party.

Out of state guests who came from Atlanta, presented to the Chicago, New York City, Kansas City, Allen town and Beaver Falls, Pa.; Brunswick, Delaware and Parma, Ohio, Rockville, Md., Charlotte, N.C., and the Deminison Or-

The beautifully decorated club house was highlighted with a four foot tall lucite column containing fifteen votive candles and topped with a large floral arrangement of birds of paradise centered at the food table.

Each of the four arms extending from the center held three foot lucite containers with votive candles. Throughout the club house, tables were centered with lucite containers holding votive candles and "To Me." At the close of the marriage ceremony, Mr. Carpenter sang, "Eternal Life."

The tiered wedding cake was decorated with daisies and roses and garlanded with stringing smilex.

For traveling, the bride chose a three piece silk pants suit. Following a honeymoon to Jamaica, Mr. and Mrs. Dobberstein are making their home in Miami, Florida.

Along with guests from the entire Glades Voluntary and the remainder of the guests followed to the wedding reception at the direction of Mrs. Alice Mixson.

North Palm Beach, Wellington, Lake Worth, Singer Island, Miami, West Palm Beach, Jacksonville, Arcadia, Lantana, Ft. Myers, Lake Wales, Country Club in West Orlando and Winter Palm Beach for a gala party.

Legion Post 20 holds dinner in honor of Vet's Day

BELLE GLADE An "Early Bird" dinner was served to members and guests at the American Legion, Post 20, in honor of Veteran's Day on Sunday, November 10.

The opening prayer was given by Post Chaplain Chuck Elliot and Fred Youchock, commander, was in charge of the ceremony. An anonymous reading was given by Youchock and Ladies Auxiliary President Andrea Marotta to the congregation. The reading was as follows:

On this day, we recognize and honor the services of all the veterans of all wars.

We celebrate the incredible spirit that leads men and women to sacrifice everything, even their lives, in order to protect and defend our country, and our way of living.

Just as we remember and honor those who serve in uniform, we honor those who serve without the uniform.

The teachers, scientists, and public officials who devote their lives to serving their country are heroes; the same as any who served in battle.

Those millions of Americans who take their evenings and weekends to serve the children, the elderly, and the unfortunate of this country... they are our heroes.

The waging of war involves much more than the battle in the field. Those who face the horrors of the battlefield have with them a unity of spirit; the strength of their belief in freedom and justice; and the love of their family and of their country.

The loneliness of war is left for the loved ones at home. The parents, the brothers, sisters, wives and sweethearts whose sacrifice is the fear and the loss that comes with war.

Those who give their lives give also a part of the lives of those who love them.

The price we pay for war is more than we want to give. We would rather pay for peace.

Let us translate the devotion we have in wartime to a devotion for strength in peace, let us live for peace for our country, instead of die in war.

We will now observe a moment of silence in memory of those who have served and are no longer with us. In peace, we continue to fight to promote the ideals that keep our country strong, and to move forward in the sight of God, as a nation of justice, freedom, liberty, and strength, at peace with the world.

Glades Historical Society holds first meeting of the new year at library

BELLE GLADE The Glades Historical Society met recently at the Belle Glade Municipal Library for its first meeting of the new 1985-86 year.

The president, Mrs. Gloria C. Swager, presided over the business meeting with 17 in attendance. Other officers include Mrs. Lily Wilder, recording secretary; Mrs. Violet Felsing, corresponding secretary and Frank Dooley, treasurer.

It was announced by the book chairman, Mrs. Martha Allison, that the Society had just received a new printing of all Lawrence E. Will's books. The are available for sale to the public by contacting Mrs. Allison.

The speaker for the evening, Howard (Blue) Mills, was introduced by Mrs. Margaret Mosley, acting vice-president.

He gave a talk on his collection of antique bottles. He has collected many unique varieties through the years. He is scheduled to address the club again at a later date with another of his many collections. The Society meets the first Thursday of each month, November through May at the Belle Glade Municipal Library. Anyone with an interest in local history is invited to attend.

Brooks announce birth of baby boy

BELLE GLADE Timothy and Nancy Brooks are proud to announce the birth of their new son, Timothy Garah (Gary), born on October 4 at Everglades Memorial Hospital in Pahokee. Gary weighed 5 pounds, 12 ounces and was 17 inches long.

Maternal grandparents are Lou Sprinkle and the late

G.U. Sprinkle. Paternal grandparents are Gene and Charlott Brooks of Belle Glade. He was welcomed home by his big brother, Jeremy.

Little is this month's star student at CDS

GARY LITTLE

BELLE GLADE Gary Little is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Junior Little of Belle Glade. He has been chosen as the star student for the month of November at Christian Day School.

Gary, a junior this year at Christian Day School, is on the Student Council, Business Manager of the Annual Staff, a member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and Key Club and a member of the Drama Club. Gary's interests are in business management, and laser technology.

"I like Christian Day School because the teachers and students are like one big family. The school might be small, but it's big on love," commented Gary.

Change in jury district could cost over $2 million

By ERIC KOPP
BELLE GLADE—Figures based on 1985 statistics show changing the jury district to West Palm Beach, would cost in excess of $2 million per year to the six major law enforcement agencies in the area.
 Tom Ball of the Public Defenders office in Belle Glade said Tuesday, loss of the jury district would cost the Florida Highway Patrol, Health and Rehabilitation Services, Belle Glade, Pahokee, and South Bay Police Department's, and the Palm Beach County Sheriff's Department, a total of $2,161,553.14 per year.

 "Far and away the biggest cost is the officer's salaries. That total figure came to $1.4 million. Travel cost was figured at one-third of a million, while witness costs, which are not born by the courts, is figured at $400,000, and the transporting of prisoners is figured to cost $50,000," said Ball.

He said witness costs were based on minimum hourly wage, and at two trips per case.

Ball said the figures were compiled by Georgetown Carroll, Criminal Justice Planner for the Palm Beach County Sheriff's Office.

"There are a lot of hidden multiples here, and the parade of horrors is easy to imagine," added Ball.

He said one big factor to be considered is the "hassle factor."

"The hassle factor is a big factor because people (police officers) just aren't going to bother with the minor charges," he said.

He said many of the lesser charges will not be filed because officers won't have the time to spend traveling to the coast, then sitting and waiting for their case to be heard.

Ball said the cost figures would be presented to judges on the coast who are proposing the change or are on the steering committee.

Palm Beach County Court Administrator Dan Wylie said nothing official has been done as of yet, and that everything is still tentative.

But Ball doesn't agree with this assessment. "Time is of the essence. There is too much at stake here," he said.

Ball said there is no way to figure the cost to local businessmen to replace employees who have to attend court either as witnesses or victims.

"The scary part is, what are cities like Pahokee or South Bay going to do if half their officers are subpoenaed to be in court? There won't be anyone to protect the city," stated Ball.

Ball added the legal committee, which is made up of attorneys who want to retain the Glades jury district, are preparing to file an Amicus Curiae brief in three to four weeks.

An Amicus brief, simply put, means a friend of the court, or an interested third party.

As a friend of the court, the committee is saying they are not directly involved in the suit but are concerned in the outcome, and ask the right to argue their brief.

The brief is being filed in Supreme Court where defense attorney Nelson Bailey has filed a petition challenging the right of Judge Don Adams to sit as a circuit judge indefinitely.

Manie Glades said she has obtained permission from two businesses in Belle Glade to use their signs in urging Glades area residents to sign petitions that are being circulated.

Petitions will be taken to the steering committee in West Palm Beach as a show of support by west county residents for the preservation of the Glades jury district.

Police scurry for K-9 insurance

By ERIC KOPP
BELLE GLADE—The Belle Glade and Pahokee Police Departments are frantically trying to find insurance companies that are willing to carry liability insurance on their K-9 units.

Belle Glade Director of Public Safety D. Bill Mathis said Tuesday, three years ago there were 16 companies in the state writing police liability insurance, but because of multi-million dollar judgments only two in the state are carrying insurance for police departments.

Mathis said Lloyd's of London was underwriting insurance for K-9's, but dropped out for the same reason.

"Our insurance was dropped because the amount of high judgements that have been handed out and the insurance companies haven't taken up the slack," said Mathis.

He said liability on the dogs was the only thing dropped by the department's insurance carrier.

Chief Carmen Salvatore, Pahokee Police Department, said the department's one K-9 has been insured since November 2.

He and Councilman John Norman along with the Florida League of Cities, and the United States Police Canine Association are actively seeking a carrier for their K-9.

"They (the League of Cities and USPCA) do not underwrite K-9 insurance, but they are trying to locate a carrier for us," said Norman.

Mathis said the department's over $500,000 insurance package was one K-9 in the neighborhood of $50,000 per year.

Norman said liability for the police department was $37,085 last year, but has gone up to $4,725 this year and now has a $5,000 deductible.

Mathis and Norman both stated they hope to have the matter cleared up by the middle of this week.

Take a load off your heart.

Volunteers are still needed

The Volunteer Program at the Glades Health Center has been very successful and currently has 52 volunteers working throughout the center.

Some are regular volunteers who come in every week and give from three to 40 hours. Then there are the auxiliary volunteers who meet once a month for 1-2 hours to assist with special projects and needs of the center.

The other group of volunteers is the emergency volunteers. They are only called upon when special situations and needs arise during the year when extra help is needed, such as the preschool immunization program.

The auxiliary is presently planning and preparing for special Christmas needs and projects of the health center. Doria Miller, Volunteer Services Specialist, says the auxiliary has been like her "right arm" in starting and building the volunteer program in Belle Glade. An outstanding group of officers head up the auxiliary. They are: Sandra Chamblee, chairman; Lee Rodriguez, vice chairman; and Virginia Walker, secretary. Gloria and Sid Smith are heading up this year's Christmas project and everyone is delighted to have the Glades Day School Honor Society and their sponsor, Susie Oresenig, assisting.

They will help with the Christmas baskets for the needy, collecting toys and gifts, assisting with the children's party, and other things. We are certainly grateful to Susie and her dedicated group of young people.

While it is very apparent from the staff's reactions to their volunteers that they are appreciated — all 52 of them — we still need another 50 volunteers. Some of the areas of need are:

- * Nutrition. File turnaround documents.
- * Human Services. Filing and typing correspondence.
- * Administrative/Janitorial. Mopping, stripping, waxing and polishing floors with machinery.
- * Volunteer Services. Assist. coordinator with various duties.

These positions, along with numerous others, are open and our staff will be happy to train you if you are inexperienced in the area. The training and experience are also valuable job references.

ing. Alphabetizing encounters and matching to billing.

* PHP. Enrolling clients in Prepaid Health Plan.

* PHP. Assist with traffic flow, do eye exams, take histories, etc.

* Nursing. Copy medical charts, make up new charts, type labels.

* TB Clinic. File lab slips in charts and add new sheets as needed.

* Nursing. Type lab slips and other clerical duties.

* Nursing. File medical charts, file immunization records, pull records.

* Administrative/Janitorial. Mopping, stripping, waxing and polishing floors with machinery.

* Volunteer Services. Assist. coordinator with various duties.

These positions, along with numerous others, are open and our staff will be happy to train you if you are inexperienced in the area. The training and experience are also valuable job references.

Hello, I'm Walter Percy

I am the Senior Vice President and Cashier, a position where I find the experience gained through my nearly 30 years of banking, all in Palm Beach County, valuable for meeting the challenges of our growing bank.

My wife, Paula, and I moved to Pahokee 18 months ago. I have found the opportunity to take advantage of the favorite lake recreational activity, bass fishing on Lake Okeechobee. Our children, Brenda, Betsy, Eddie and Barry are all grown and on their way to careers of their own.

A West Palm Beach native, I graduated from Palm Beach High School. I earned my degree from the University of Florida and Stonier Graduate School of Banking at Rutgers University. I served in the U. S. Air Force and then started my banking career at Florida National Bank at West Palm Beach. I spent most of my career, at First Marine Bank at Lake Worth and had the opportunity to be involved in its growth to a $500 million bank. I was president of Congress National Bank at Palm Springs, a First Marine affiliate. One of the rewards of my banking career has been the opportunity to become involved in many civic and community activities.

Pay fines at County Clerk's office

BELLE GLADE—People ticketed for traffic infractions now will face paying the full amount of the fine, without benefit of seeing the judge, as all fines are to be paid in full at the County Clerk's Office.

Barbara Milligan said the new law went into effect October 1 and violators began paying their fines at the Violations Bureau in her office last Monday.

All traffic violations except for DUI's, leaving the scene of an accident, and hit and run involving personal injury, are to be paid or taken care of in her office within 10 days of the date on the ticket.

Milligan said offenders will have three options in taking care of their tickets. They can either pay the fine, request to go to traffic school, or plead innocent and request a trial.

She said those who have gone to traffic school previously or have had points withheld on their driver's licenses will not be able to use that as one of their options.

If violators fail to clear their tickets within the prescribed time frame they will automatically be judged guilty and the paperwork will be forwarded to Tallahassee.

"This will take away from the large number of people who come out here on Tuesday's for traffic court," said Milligan.

She said only mandatory appearance cases, and misdemeanors will be heard on Tuesday's.

Milligan said her office is open Monday-Friday, 8:30 a.m. until 4:30 p.m.
